The Israeli hostages are currently located at Al Mahuydithat. See ENCLOSURE 7.

Edward Tracy and Robert Reed remain in the company of European hostages.

A tall, thin, Iranian official is involved in preliminary negotiations with European officials on behalf of the hostages. This man has a thin face.

In late May and early June 1989, the issue of the release of the hostages will resurface as being analytically feasible.

Faced with continuing internal aggravating problems of everyday survival and "the possibility of a natural disaster", the Shites will react in such a manner that will favor a possibility of the releasability of the hostages. The Iranian influence on the fate of the hostages will be of secondary importance to the Shites holding the hostages in Lebanon.
